Wrist Whimsy

For jewelry line Space Mermaid, designer Stephanie Carbone looks to the sea and the celestial for inspiration. The result for spring is a collection of irresistible candy-hued confections—sterling silver fairy charms paired with pearls and fairy dust; Peruvian opals perched next to butterflies; dangling mother of pearl leaves. The spring charm bracelet tops them all with yellow, baby blue and green birdies nesting with bunny rabbits, strawberries and ladybugs, pretty enameled bells and Swarovski crystal pearls.
